Special Agents is evolving... From September we will be changing the way that Special Agents is run. We will still have the same starting age of 5, but there will be no upper limit (so Active8 children you can still come if you want to!) We are however going to change our time, it will be from 6pm to 7pm each Friday night during term time. We return from our summer break on Friday 10th September.

Under the new structure we will be working towards a production (Yet to be confirmed) that we will perform in Summer 2005. We will still be enjoying singing, dancing and drama, but might not be doing all of them every week. In addition to this, some week’s groups of children will be making costumes and scenery for the production.

For us to move forward and for this to become a reality, we need more children and more adults (we will ask you to sign up to help with the activity evenings!)

For more details please speak to Garth.

Wed 14th July - 7.45pm. New Life Christian Fellowship (Uphill Congregation) invite us to join their Celebration at Mount Street School.
